FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT, Monday Evening, July 15, 1867.

The week opens with a very light demand for money, and a continuation of that profound quiet in financial circles which has been their distinguishing feature for several weeks past. The banks are well supplied with currency, and are d'scounting favorite piper at from 9 to 12 per cent. In the outside market rates of interest range from 1 to 12 have result a month when unexceptions.

The exemption (or non-exemption) from taxation is an element of their price; and he who bays a non-taxable bond pays his taxes as truly as others. He pays in action. To tax his bonds were snbject to taxation. To tax his bonds were snbject to
